Washinston, Oct. 3.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business September 30, 1590, the public debt less cash in the treasury amounted to $1,148,905,790, a decrease for the month of $8,400,775. This decrease is accounted for by a corresponding increase in the cash on hand. The debt is recapitulated as follows:
Interest bearing debt. $1,045,045,045,058,050.

area as follows:
Interest bearing debt, $1,045.048,830.
Debt on which interest has ceased
ince maturity, $1,215.030.
Debt bearing no interest, $389,337, 12.

z. Total, $1,436,601,392

Total, $1,496,001,392.

This amount, however, does not include $647,965,903 in treasury notes outstanding, which are offset by an equal amount of eash on hand. The bash in the treasury is classified as follows:

Goid, $333,003,279, sifver, $499,023,492; paper, $78,078,145; bonds, deposits in national bank depositories, disbursing officers' balances, etc., $88,933,112. To-tal, $1,015,241,086, against which there are demand liabilities outstanding amounting to $727,343,475, which leaves a net cash bainnee on hand of $287,-690,612.

But Little Betting on the Yacht Race.
New Yorks, Oct. 3.—There was very little betting on the yacht races Monday night around the hotels. In fact, the element which usually has money ready for the big yacht races was of the opinion that the betting interest this year is below the average. It is thought, however, that it will jick up after Tuesday's race, when the men with money to put up can get a line on the boats.
